EASLEY APPOINTS GUZNICZAK TO ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Caroline M. Guzniczak of Charlotte to the North Carolina Board of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors.

Guzniczak is a business consultant with Wachovia. Previously, she worked for Arthur Andersen as a senior manager. She received her bachelor's degree in industrial engineering from the University of Pittsburgh and her master's of business administration from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

The board establishes rules, reviews applications and prepares and administers examinations for licensure as professional engineers and land surveyors in the state. There are nine members on the board, each serving a 5-year term. The governor appoints all members.
